8. RECORDS HELD BY THE COMPANY

In terms of records that may be requested, the mere fact that the information of the company is listed in the Manual does not mean that the information will be made available. The company in terms of Chapter 4 of PAIA, has the right to refuse a request for information should any of the grounds of refusal as set out in Chapter 4 of the Act, exist.

For instance, we may have to refuse you access to certain records in terms of PAIA to protect:

- someone else's privacy;
- Trigger's confidential information;
- Information that by agreement between Trigger and a third party, is confidential (for example the content of a confidential agreement);
- another company's personal, commercial or confidential information;
- someone else's confidential information;
- the safety of individuals and property;
- records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- research information; or
- commercial activities of Trigger, which may include trade secrets, intellectual property, proprietary information, financial information, commercial information or technical information which disclosure would likely cause harm to the business interests of Trigger.

We will notify you in writing whether your request has been approved or denied within 30 (thirty) calendar days after we have received a completed Request for Access form. If we cannot find any requested record or it does not exist, then we will notify you that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.
